Holy Week Volunteers Needed

We are calling on the kindness our parishioners to help with a bit of preparation of the Gethsemane Altar of repose on Wednesday evening in St Patrick's Hall. It is a wonderful evening when we come together as a parish community to do something beautiful for our good Lord, and to foster new friendships. If anyone is available, would you please contact the parish office or speak directly with Fr Robbie. Thank you!

About St Elizabeth Hospital

Not only is St Elizabeth a hospital, but a facility for training nurses and midwives to guarantee the future of Pakistani women and babies. St Elizabeth's Hospital was established in 1958 and is a non-profit institution. It is owned by the Roman Catholic Diocese of Hyderabad and is run on its behalf by the Medical Board of the Diocese. Since 1975, St Elizabeth has been staffed by Pakistani personnel.

In 2010, St. Elizabeth Hospital is the sole medical provider for 12,000 people in nearby villages. Free medication is provided. The major health issues that need attention are: provision of ante-natal, natal and post-natal care; infantile anaemia; general medical care for all sexes and age, including diagnosis, treatment, and provision of medicines; TB diagnosis with referral to the TB care center to the Government TB Sanatorium in Hyderabad; Hepatitis A, B and C diagnosis and treatment; treatment of common ophthalmic and skin conditions and diseases. In 2020, the hospital is providing free health care to 50,000 people. For more, please watch the youtube clip: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AGnUJ962wKA>

Holy Week Message

Dear Friends,

We are about to embark on the great journey through Holy Week. Over the course of the next week, all of Christ's Church throughout the world, seeks to tread the way of the Cross with Him in the great journey of His Passion. How can we truly understand the depth of His love for us, and the reason for His coming among us, if we remain as idle spectators in the crowd, like those who saw a condemned man, carrying His cross through Jerusalem, and then went back to their ordinary business. A moment of curiosity? A brief thrill of spectacle? A rumour of the news and gossip? And then back to the ordinary affairs of life. Never let it be said of us. The glory of the resurrection shines so much more brightly because we have known the drama and the passion which led to it.

Over the course of the next week, Holy Church, which is the mystical body of Christ, brings us to the holy land so that we can experience those events others saw so long ago with their own eyes. For us, in many ways, the experience is more precious and more fruitful. We have the knowledge step by step of what is happening, and why. Today, on Palm Sunday, we can exult that the Messiah has actually come to us. He has come to the great city of peace, Jerusalem. He has been accepted by his people; we are those people. Holy Thursday, he will give us the great gift of himself in the blessed Eucharist. On Good Friday, the world's, great day of mourning and of sorrow, we will walk the path to Calvary with our Lord. Let us walk it in sincerity and devotion. Let our hearts be open to him and keep vigil outside the tomb until Easter morning only one week from now. If we share His sorrow, we will share His joy, and that joy is greater than anything the world can give. Let us live this Holy Week well so that Christ may rise in our hearts.

Fr Robbie

St Patrick's Day Celebration

Thank you to all our wonderful volunteers and amazing parishioners who came together last Sunday for a very special celebration of St Patrick's Day!

Altar Society

The formation of an altar society is long overdue for both churches. The duties of an altar society include care of the sacred linens, including the reverent laundering and preparation of those elements required for the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, as well as the preparation of the floral arrangements in the churches and occasional polishing or preparation of metal works. If any members of the parish are interested in lending a hand, please contact Fr Robbie or the parish office for further information?

Choir

At 10am Mass, the Choir will sing:

Offertory Motet: 'Lauda Jerusalem' (L' Abbe Darros)

Communion Motet: 'Christus Factus Est' (Anerio)

At 5pm Mass, the Choir will sing:

Offertory Motet: 'O Sacrum Convivium' (Pergolesi)

Communion Motet: 'Christus Factus Est' (Bruckner)

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (all bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen

Commemoration of the Lord's Entrance into Jerusalem

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark (11:1-10)

When they drew near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of his disciples, and said to them, 'Go into the village opposite you, and immediately as you enter it you will find a colt tied, on which no one has ever sat; untie it and bring it. If anyone says to you, "Why are you doing this?" say, "The Lord has need of it and will send it back here immediately"'. And they went away, and found a colt tied at the door out in the open street; and they untied it. And those who stood there said to them, 'What are you doing, untying the colt?' And they told them what Jesus had said; and they let them go.

And they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their garments on it; and he sat upon it. And many spread their garments on the road, and others spread leafy branches which they had cut from the fields. And those who went before and those who followed cried out, 'Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is coming! Hosanna in the highest!'

First Reading

Isaiah 50:4-7

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

The Lord has given me a disciple's tongue. So that I may know how to reply to the wearied he provides me with speech. Each morning he wakes me to hear, to listen like a disciple. The Lord has opened my ear. For my part, I made no resistance, neither did I turn away. I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who tore at my beard; I did not cover my face against insult and spittle. The Lord comes to my help, so that I am untouched by the insults. So, too, I set my face like flint; I know I shall not be shamed.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 21:8-9. 17-20. 23-24. R. v.2

(R.) My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

1. All who see me deride me. They curl their lips, they toss their heads. 'He trusted in the Lord, let him save him; let him release him if this is his friend.' (R.)
2. Many dogs have surrounded me, a band of the wicked beset me. They tear holes in my hands and my feet. I can count every one of my bones.

(R.)

3. They divide my clothing among them. They cast lots for my robe. O Lord, do not leave me alone, my strength, make haste to help me! (R.)
4. I will tell of your name to my brethren and praise you where they are assembled. 'You who fear the Lord give him praise; all sons of Jacob, give him glory. Revere him, Israel's sons.' (R.)

Second Reading

Philippians 2:6-11

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians

His state was divine, yet Christ Jesus did not cling to his equality with God but emptied himself to assume the condition of a slave, and became as men are, and being as all men are, he was humbler yet, even to accepting death, death on a cross. But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all other names so that all beings in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Gospel Acclamation

Philippians 2:8-9

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Christ became obedient for us even to death dying on the cross. Therefore God raised him on high and gave him a name above all other names.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Gospel

Mark 14:1 – 15:47

The passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

Communion Antiphon

Matthew 26:42

Father, if this chalice cannot pass without my drinking it, your will be done.
