St Francis of Assisi Prayer for Peace

A Simple Prayer

Lord,
MAKE Me An Instrument Of Your Peace
 Where there is Hatred.....let me sow Love
 Where there is Injury.....Pardon
 Where there is Discord...Harmony
 Where there is Doubt.....Faith
 Where there is Despair.....hope
 Where there is Darkness.....Light
 Where There is Sadness.....Joy

O Divine Master,
GRANT That I May Not So Much
 seek to be Consoled
 as to Console
 to be Understood as to Understand
 to be Loved as to Love
FOR it is in Giving that we Receive it is in Pardoning that we are Pardoned
 in dying that we are born to Eternal Life

A message from the Archdiocese of Sydney

Child sexual abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with crimes are the police. If you, or anyone you know, have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office at 9390 5813 or safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police.

Feast of the Guardian Angels

“A real friend is one who walks in when the rest of the world walks out.”

All of us love to have friends who make life more interesting and joyful by their presence. The journey of life gets more easy and exciting with the presence of friends. Our spiritual journey too follows this concept. God, the author of life, in His all-powerful Wisdom, has blessed each of us with a friend. A friend who accompanies us, a friend who strengthens us, a friend who helps us. This friend is known as “The Guardian Angel”.

This Wednesday, Holy Mother the Church celebrates the Feast of “The Guardian Angel”. The Church in her teachings affirms and assures that “from its beginning until death, human life is surrounded by watchful care and intercession of the angels. Beside each believer, stands an angel as protector and shepherd leading him to life.” (Catechism of the Catholic Church # 336)

From the first moments of our existence, the Guardian Angel has been with us. At our birth, the Guardian Angel was elated at the dawn of a new life. At our Baptism, the Guardian Angel was pleased to have us join God’s Family. At our Confession, the Guardian Angel was delighted to have us back to God’s holiness. At our Holy Communion, the Guardian Angel rejoiced in us, receiving the Loving Lord. At our Confirmation, the Guardian Angel was joyful in us, being strengthened in the Spirit. At our Marriage, Profession/Ordination, the Guardian Angel was happy with our way of life. At every stage of our life, the Guardian Angel guides us with God’s Holy Inspirations. In our final moments, the Guardian Angel will be with us to strengthen and console us. At every step of our life, God has blessed us with this beautiful companion to “to guide and protect us through life and to lead us safely to our Eternal Home.”

The Lord wants each one of us to be walking in His presence and be safe from the snares of the Evil. And for this purpose, He has blessed us with a the beautiful image of the Guardian Angel. An Angel is a being, a person – one who has an intelligence and a free will. An Angel thinks...but clearer than we do. An Angel loves... but dearly than we do.

How does a Guardian Angel guard us? Through gentle inspirations. In the hard moments of doubts and confusion, the Guardian Angel gently inspires us with words of clarity and understanding. In the dark situations of hopelessness and resignations, the Guardian Angel gently inspires us with the light of God’s hope and strength. In the narrow tunnels of losing faith and giving up, the Guardian Angel gently inspires us with comforting words and counsels. In the unfaithful times of going away from doing God’s will through sin, the Guardian Angel gently inspires us with strong urges to come back to God’s ways. In the daily moments of facing a choice of doing good or bad, the Guardian Angel gently inspires us with showing what is more beneficial and valuable. The Guardian Angels do not force us, they do respect our free wills.

The Feast of the Guardian Angels is an opportunity for us to increase in our devotion and fondness for this “friend” whom God has blessed each one of us with. It is also an opportunity for us to increase in our duty and responsibility of becoming a guardian, a friend and a guide to one another.

There are many whom we know who struggle with difficulties, problems, faith-issues, financial difficulties, mental problems, emotional breakdowns. The Feast is a reminder to each one of us, to become a Guardian to all. God has also blessed each one of us, with a True Friend, in our Guardian Angel. Let us grow in reverence and love for our Dear Spiritual Friend. Let us invoke the assistance of this friend in our works, on meeting people, while going to different places etc. Let us grow in our awareness, as St John Vianney would say: “When we are walking in the streets, let us fix our eyes on Our Lord bearing his Cross before us; on the Blessed Virgin who is looking at us; on our Guardian Angel who is by our side.” Reflection from Fr Jijo Manjackal MSFS

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, You alone are the Lord, You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Amen

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (all bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen

Entrance Antiphon

All that you have done to us, O Lord, you have done with true judgement, for we have sinned against you and not obeyed your commandments. But give glory to your name and deal with us according to the bounty of your mercy.

First Reading

Numbers 11:25-29

A reading from the book of Numbers

The Lord came down in the Cloud. He spoke with Moses, but took some of the spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders. When the spirit came on them they prophesied, but not again. Two men had stayed back in the camp; one was called Eldad and the other Medad. The spirit came down on them; though they had not gone to the Tent, their names were enrolled among the rest. These began to prophesy in the camp. The young man ran to tell this to Moses, 'Look', he said, 'Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.' Then said Joshua the son of Nun, who had served Moses from his youth, 'My Lord Moses, stop them!' Moses answered him, 'Are you jealous on my account? If only the whole people of the Lord were prophets, and the Lord gave his Spirit to them all!'

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 18:8. 10. 12-14. R. v.9

(R.) The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

1. The law of the Lord is perfect, it revives the soul. The rule of the Lord is to be trusted, it gives wisdom to the simple. (R.)
2. The fear of the Lord is holy, abiding for ever. The decrees of the Lord are truth and all of them just. (R.)
3. So in them your servant finds instructions; great reward is in their keeping. But who can detect all his errors? From hidden faults acquit me. (R.)
4. From presumption restrain your servant and let it not rule me. Then shall I be blameless, clean from grave sin. (R.)

Second Reading

James 5:1-6

A reading from the letter of St James

An answer for the rich. Start crying, weep for the miseries that are coming to you. Your wealth is all rotting, your clothes are all eaten up by moths. All your gold and your silver are corroding away, and the same corrosion will be your own sentence, and eat into your body. It was a burning fire that you stored up as your treasure for the last days. Labourers mowed your fields, and you cheated them – listen to the wages that you kept back, calling out; realise that the cries of the reapers have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts. On earth you have had a life of comfort and luxury; in the time of slaughter you went on eating to your heart's content. It was you who condemned the innocent and killed them; they offered you no resistance.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Your word, O Lord, is truth: make us holy in the truth.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 9:38-43. 45. 47-48

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

John said to Jesus, 'Master, we saw a man who is not one of us casting out devils in your name; and because he was not one of us we tried to stop him.' But Jesus said, 'You must not stop him: no one who works a miracle in my name is likely to speak evil of me. Anyone who is not against us is for us. 'If anyone gives you a cup of water to drink just because you belong to Christ, then I tell you solemnly, he will most certainly not lose his reward. 'But anyone who is an obstacle to bring down one of these little ones who have faith, would be better thrown into the sea with a great millstone round his neck. And if your hand should cause you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life crippled, than to have two hands and go to hell, into the fire that cannot be put out. And if your foot should cause you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life lame, than to have two feet and be thrown into hell. And if your eye should cause you to sin, tear it out; it is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell where their worm does not die nor their fire go out.'

Communion Antiphon

Remember your word to your servant, O Lord, by which you have given me hope. This is my comfort when I am brought low.
